- Rashad Hyacenth- I was blown away by how well articulated the speakers were throughout the event. I was especially please with Shaun Hoyte and Laura Humphrey who were especially impressive. HG was a phenomenal host as well.
- H.G. & his team do an incredible job keeping people engaged. This is my second event I've been to that he's hosted and it's great. - Andrew Kringas
- Meetings provide an opportunity for learning, thinking creatively, meeting new people with common interests and developing new business relationships. Phyllis Kessler
- Amazing facilitation by the AEG team. I loved meeting in person and the collaborative attitude that HG facilitates. People are open to share. People in the room are from different occupations and give different perspectives. We need to collaborate more than ever before, so we really need this type of cross sector facilitation.

- Wonderfully educational and great to connect with all the players in and around the energy space. We all need to work together on climate, health, and equity, and the best way to do that is collaborating and sharing our ideas and perspective. -

Katie Sheehan, Tishman Speyer

- This was really great! It was engaging from beginning to end.
- A well run, great facilitation of conversations but what they do better than others is taking the time to verbalize ideas, voting on ideas to make them actionable.
- I had a great

- time talking about decarbonization!
- As usual, HG and his team brought together an impressive slant of speakers and stakeholders to address the key issues related to the decarbonization of the building and transportation sectors
- Well coordinated event! Really enjoyed the dialogue with my peers at the table.
- I enjoyed hearing perspective from different building managers and having both government agencies, utilities, and private sector in the room (Yarden Zamir)
- Another great workshop. Wonderful to catch up with old friends and meet new colleagues
- Such a great cross section of perspectives on how to decarbonize the built environment. Great event.

Any suggestions?

- More marketing should be done to get more people to this event.
- Keep developing new ideas to keep the audience engaged and talking. There's very little to critique.
- Integrate breaks between themed sessions
- Not now
- Some presentations were pretty long.
- Longer breaks for networking
- Not at this time.
- Focus more on how to incorporate equity into decarbonization goals
- None
